

Today's Gospel focuses on Jesus' identity as the shepherd using the familiar Hebrew Scripture imagery. Jesus is both the gate to the sheepfold and the shepherd willing to suffer for his flock. The invitation is to follow this wounded shepherd, knowing that we have been healed precisely by his wounds. In a world obsessed with power and strength, what image would motivate someone to follow him?

The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out." ---John 10:3

THEOLOGY ON TAP WEST: IGNATIAN DISCERNMENT OF GOD'S WILL IN DAILY LIFE,

Monday, May 8, 2017 - 7:00pm - 9:00pm Boston Pizza,
50 Courtney Park Dr E Mississauga, ON
Special guest: John O'Brien, SJ.
How do I make small daily decisions as well as larger life decisions? How can I be open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit? In an era of fast and constant information, connectivity, and social media, many decisions can feel overwhelming because I want to choose what is right, what will make me happy and what will bring me success. But what is the role of my own conscience and heart in decision making? How can the way I make decisions impact consolation and desolation.

Living the Gospel by helping families in need ...

One of the core components of our Pastoral Plan is Catholic Outreach in Justice and Love. As a Catholic community we are called to be the hands and face of Jesus in our communities. One of the ways that we do this is through our annual ShareLife appeal, which provides resources to agencies serving the poor and marginalized not only in our archdiocese, but also around the world. ShareLife is a tangible way that we can put the Gospel value to love one another as I have loved you into action, and I invite all parishioners to support the mission work of the Catholic church by making a sacrificial gift to ShareLife.—Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto. Over 21,000 individuals received help in getting their lives back on track through ShareLife-supported Family Services Programs.

Next ShareLife Sunday is – June 4, 2017
